Business Operating Requirements

We assist our clients navigating business opportunities in countries around the world. One client located in the United States operated a location in Canada. They received inaccurate advice regarding business operating requirements. We helped them understand the “Canada-United States Convention with Respect to Taxes on Income and on Capital” and were able to provide guidance that resulted in a 30-35% annual tax savings.

Cross-Border Transactions

Our clients can count on us to advise them on structuring cross-border transactions in the most tax-efficient way that minimizes foreign tax credits.

Language Capabilities

Within the diverse BeachFleishman team, we have many language capabilities, including English, Spanish, Japanese, Russian, Mandarin and Portuguese.

Outbound or Inbound Needs

We work with clients with both outbound and inbound international tax activities. Whether you are an American expat in another country or a foreign national in the U.S., we can help you conduct business or invest.

Tax-Smart Restructuring

A construction company building a golf course in Mexico had challenges regarding reimbursements they were to receive. They tried working through a tax advisor in the country. After four months of not being able to resolve the issue, they came to us. In order to provide the best position for both Mexican and U.S. tax purposes, we advised them to restructure, which also eased the payment challenges they were facing.

Tax Strategies

Our technical knowledge about international tax allows us to serve our clients through compliance, advisory and analysis to help maximize their business position at home and abroad. We help coordinate with our counterparts in other countries to ensure that tax laws in all involved countries are followed while combining the optimal tax strategy in the United States and the optimal tax strategy in the other country.
